Coburg Basketball Association Inc.

Policy and Indemnification Under Age Players

The Coburg Basketball Association is conscious of its obligations to players and parents in the conduct of the competitions under its control.

The Association adopts a principle that players should not generally play up more than one age group.

Parents and Players should be aware that:

Players playing up more than one age group will be consistently exposed to older and physically stronger athletes.

Indemnification

I acknowledge the Association's statements in relation to players playing more than one age group up, and have discussed with the club the circumstances under which my child will be both playing, training and traveling. I acknowledge that there may be greater risk of injury as a result of my child playing in a more senior competition. Notwithstanding that greater risk, I consent to my child playing in those circumstances.

I indemnify the Association and club, against any suit, action or demand for injury which my child or other person might otherwise have arising out of his/her involvement in playing in the competition, which is attributable to the fact that he/she is playing up more than one age group, and release the Association and the club from any suit, action or demand which I might otherwise have but for signing this agreement.
